Greene County Visitor Center

Start the trail at the Greene County Visitor Center located at Exit 21 off the NYS Thruway (I-87) and stop in to get customized itineraries.

Olana State Historic Site

Rip Van Winkle Skywalk

Retrace your way back from Olana to the east side of the Rip Van Winkle Bridge and park on the right, before bridge entrance. The Skywalk entrance is located across the street from the parking lot where you will enjoy a scenic 2-mile, round-trip walk.

Thomas Cole National Historic Site

Proceed over the bridge and make a left at the traffic light off Rte. 23 west. Make first left off Spring Street into shared parking lot for Thomas Cole and Temple Israel. The entrance is located on the right.

Historic Catskill Point and Freightmasters Building

Dutchman's Landing Park

Retrace your way back for .2 miles. On the right you'll see the entrance to Dutchman's Landing Park on lower Main Street in the Village of Catskill.

Kaaterskill Clove Lookout/ Long Path

Follow Main Street west to the traffic light and make a left onto Bridge Street. At the second traffic light, bear left onto Rte. 9W south, follow for .5 miles, merge onto Rte. 23A west out of the Village of Catskill and travel approximately 9 miles. Parking lot is located on the right just as you are leaving the hamlet of Palenville and immediately before the "Entering Catskill Park" sign. Take the 1.8-mile, round-trip hike with dramatic views of the clove.

Kaaterskill Falls

Continue on Rte. 23A west for approximately 3 miles. As you come to the hairpin turn, you will see Bastion Falls on your right, and the entrance to the trailhead. Continue up the hill to marked parking lot on your left. Carefully walk down the left-hand side of the road, on the inside of the guardrail, pass over the bridge and enter the trailhead on the left. Be sure to enjoy the view from the parking area where you can see the clove.

Mountain Top Historical Society

Continue on Rte. 23A west in Haines Falls to the entrance of the Visitor Center on your right. During business hours the staff will be on hand to answer any questions regarding the area.

Kaaterskill Rail Trail

Park in the back of the Mountain Top Historical Society (see directions above) and walk towards the old train depot to access the trailhead for the Rail Trail. This 1.5-mile trail on the former Ulster and Delaware Railroad leaves the rail bed and travels along North Lake Road to Featherbed Lane, where it rejoins the rail bed to end at Laurel House Road.

North-South Lake Campground

Continue west on Rte. 23A for .5 miles, make a right onto North Lake Rd (Cty Rte. 18), and follow to end at State Park Gatehouse (admission fees apply).

Catskill Mountain House Site

Proceed through the North-South Lake Campground entrance (see previous directions) to parking lot near North Lake where you will find the trailhead to the Catskill Mountain House site.

Escarpment Trail at North-South Lake

Exit North-South Lake Campground, follow North Lake Road (Cty Rte. 18) to Scutt Road and follow to end.

The Huckleberry Trail

Make your way back to Rte. 23A west to the Village of Tannersville. Make a left onto south Main Street and follow to Lake Road, passing Lake Rip Van Winkle.

Mountain Top Arboretum

Leaving the Huckleberry Trail, make a right onto Railroad Avenue, crossover Rte. 23A to Rte. 23C, continue 2 miles to entrance on right.

Hunter Mountain Resort

Retrace back to Rte. 23A west, travel 4.2 miles and make a left into Hunter Mountain Resort.

Pratt Rock - "New York's Mount Rushmore"

Travel west on Rte. 23A heading out of Hunter and continue for 15 miles to the intersection of Routes 23A & 23. Take Rte. 23 west for 1 mile till you see the entrance to Pratt Rock on the right.

Zadock Pratt Museum

Travel west on Rte. 23 in Prattsville to the museum, located on the right.

John Burroughs Homestead & Woodchuck Lodge
